AMENDED BY LAWS

OF

RFM CORPORATION
(Formerly: Republic Flour Mills, Inc.)

I. OFFICE

The principal office of the corporation shall be located at the place stated in Article III of the Articles of Incorporation. The Board of Directors may establish factories, and such branch and sales offices, either within or outside the Philippines.

II. SEAL

The corporate seal shall consist of a circular design on which is inscribed the name of the corporation and the words "Founded 1957, Philippines".

III. PROXIES

At all meetings of stockholders, a stockholder may vote in person, through a proxy, through remote communication, or in absentia. (As amended on 29 July 2020)

Unless otherwise provided in proxy, it shall be valid only for the meeting at which it has been presented to the Secretary. All proxies must be in the hands of the Secretary at least two (2) business days before the time set for the meeting. Proxies filed with the Secretary may be revoked by the stockholders either in an instrument in writing duly presented and recorded with the Secretary, prior to a scheduled meeting or by their personal presence at the meeting.

IV. QUORUM

Unless otherwise provided by law, in all regular or special meeting of stockholders, a majority of the issued and outstanding capital stock must be present or represented in order to constitute a quorum.

A stockholder who participates through remote communication or in absentia, shall be deemed present for purposes of quorum.

If no election is held, or the owners of majority of the outstanding capital stock or majority of the members entitled to vote are not present in person, by proxy, or through remote communication or not voting in absentia at the meeting, such meeting may be adjourned and the Corporation shall proceed in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Corporation Code. (As amended on 29 July 2020)

V. VOTING

Voting upon all questions at all meetings of the stockholders shall be by shares of stock. However, for the election of directors, the shares of stock shall be voted as provided in the Revised Corporation Code of the Philippines.

Provided, that stockholders may also vote through remote communication or in absentia, subject to the rules and regulations as may be issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission. (As amended on 29 July 2020)

VI. ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the stockholders shall be held on the last Wednesday of June of every year.

VII. SPECIAL MEETINGS

The special meetings of stockholders, for any purpose or purposes, may at any time be called by any of the following: (a) at the written request of at least four (4) members of the Board of Directors, (b) at the written request of stockholders representing a majority of the issued and outstanding capital stock, or (b) at the written request of the President.

VIII. PLACE OF MEETING

Stockholders' meetings, whether regular or special, shall be held in the principal office of the corporation or at any place designated by the Board of Directors in the city or municipality where the principal office of the corporation is located, or though remote communication subject to the rules and regulations as may be issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission. (As amended on 29 July 2020)

IX. NOTICE OF MEETING

9.1 Notices for annual meetings of stockholders may be sent by the Secretary by personal delivery or electronic mail or fax or by mail at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the meeting to each stockholder of record at his last known address or by publishing the notice in a newspaper of national circulation at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the meeting, or in such other manner as the Securities and Exchange Commission may allow under its guidelines.

Notice of special meetings of stockholders may be sent at least one (1) week prior to the date of the meeting in the same manner above.

The notice shall state the place, date and hour of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Notice may be waived by the stockholders. (As amended on 29 July 2020)

9.2 When the meeting of stockholders is adjourned to another time or place, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of the adjourned meeting if the time and place to which the meeting is adjourned are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. At the reconvened meeting, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted on the original date of the meeting.

X. OFFICERS

10.1 Immediately after their election, the Board of Directors shall formally organize by electing the Chairman of the Board, the Vice-Chairman, the President, the Treasurer, and the Secretary at said meeting.

The Board may, from time to time, appoint such other officers as it may determine to be necessary or proper. Any two (2) or more compatible positions may be held concurrently by the same person, except that no one shall act as President and Treasurer or Secretary at the same time.

10.2 The term of office of all officers provided for in this section hereof shall be one (1) year and until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

10.3 If any position of the officers referred to in this section, becomes vacant by reason of death, resignation, disqualification or for any other cause, the Board of Directors, by majority vote may elect a successor who shall hold office for the unexpired term.

10.4 All officers referred to in this section shall be subject to removal by resolution of the Board, with or without cause, provided a majority of the Board shall vote in favor thereof.

h. To implement these by-laws and to act on any matter not covered by these by-laws, provided such matter does not require the approval or consent of the stockholders under the Corporation Code of the Philippines.

16.2 The Board of Directors shall be elected during each regular meeting of stockholders and shall hold office for one (1) year and until their successors are elected and qualified.

16.3 If the office of any Director becomes vacant by any reason other than by removal by the stockholders or expiration of term, the remaining Directors if constituting a majority vote, may choose a successor or successors who shall hold office for the unexpired term. In case of resignation, disqualification or cessation of independent directorship and only after notice has been made with the Commission within five (5) days from such resignation, disqualification or cessation, the vacancy shall be filled by the vote of at least a majority of the remaining directors, if still constituting a quorum, upon the nomination of the Nomination Committee. Otherwise, said vacancy shall be filled by the stockholders in a regular or special meeting called for that purpose. An independent director so elected to fill a vacancy shall serve only for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office.

16.4 Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held once a month on such dates and at places as the Chairman of the Board may determine, or upon the request of a majority of the Directors. Directors who cannot physically attend or vote at the board meetings can participate and vote through remote communication such as videoconferencing, teleconferencing, or other alternative modes of communication as the Securities and Exchange Commission may allow. (As amended on 29 July 2020)

16.5 Notice of the regular or special meeting of the Board, specifying the date, time and place of the meeting, shall be communicated by the Secretary to each director personally, or by telephone, or by written message sent by fax, or by e-mail, or such other alternative modes of communication as the Securities and Exchange Commission may allow under its guidelines, at least two (2) days prior to the date of the meeting. A director may waive this requirement, either expressly or impliedly. (As amended on 29 July 2020)

16.6. A majority of the number of directors as fixed in the Articles of Incorporation shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of corporate business and every decision of at least a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which there is a quorum shall be valid as a corporate act, except for the election of officers which shall require the vote of a majority of all the members of the Board. A director who participates and/or votes in the meeting through remote communication such as videoconferencing, teleconferencing, or other alternative modes of communication shall be considered present for purposes of quorum. (As amended on 29 July 2020)

16.7 Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be presided over by the Chairman of the Board, or in his absence, by the Vice-Chairman, or in his absence by the President, or in his absence, by any other director chosen by the Board. The Secretary, shall act as secretary of every meeting, if not present, the Chairman of the meeting, shall appoint a secretary of the meeting.

It is tasked with ensuring compliance with and proper observance of corporate governance principles and practices. It shall have the following duties and functions:

a. Oversee the implementation of the corporate governance framework and periodically reviews the said framework to ensure that it remains appropriate in light of material changes to the corporation's size, complexity and business strategy, as well as its business and regulatory environments;

b. Oversee the periodic performance evaluation of the Board and its committees as well as executive management, and conducts an annual self-evaluation of its performance;

c. Ensure that the results of the Board evaluation are shared, discussed, and that concrete action plans are developed and implemented to address the identified areas for improvement;

d. Recommend continuing education/training programs for directors, assignment of tasks/projects to board committees, succession plan for the board members and senior officers, and remuneration packages for corporate and individual performance;

e. Adopt corporate governance policies and ensures that these are reviewed and updated regularly, and consistently implemented in form and substance;

f. Propose and plan relevant trainings for the members of the Board;

g. Determine the nomination and election process for the company's directors and has the special duty of defining the general profile of board members that the company may need and ensuring appropriate knowledge, competencies and expertise that complement the existing skills of the Board, and;

h. Pre-screen and shortlist all candidates nominated to become a member of the Board of Directors by considering the guidelines herein set forth. In determining the number of concurrent directorships that a Board member may have, the Committee shall consider the:

(i) Nature of the business of the Corporation of which he is a director;
(ii) Number of directorships/active memberships and officerships in other corporations or organizations, and;

(iii) Such other factors which the Committee may consider from time to time.

The optimum number shall be related to the capacity of a director to perform his duties diligently in general.

The executive directors, the independent directors and non-executive directors shall submit themselves to a low indicative limit on membership in other corporate boards of listed companies other than the subsidiaries of the Corporation. The same low limit shall apply to independent, non-executive directors who serve as full time executives in other corporations. In any case, the capacity of directors to serve with diligence shall not be compromised.

17.2 Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee shall be composed of at least three (3) voting members, one of whom, shall be an independent director and shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

a. Establish a formal and transparent procedure for developing a policy on executive remuneration and for fixing the remuneration packages of corporate officer, and provide oversight over remuneration of senior management and personnel ensuring that compensation is consistently and equitably implemented in accordance with the corporation's culture, strategy and control environment and recommend the remuneration packages of directors for the approval of the Board.

b. Designate amount of remuneration, which shall be in a sufficient level to attract and retain directors and officers who are needed to run the corporation successfully.

c. Require all directors and incoming officers to declare under the penalty of perjury all their existing business interests or shareholdings that may directly or indirectly conflict in their performance of duties once appointed or hired.

d. Disallow any director or officer to decide his or her own remuneration.

e. Provide in the corporation's annual reports, information and proxy statements a clear, concise and understandable disclosure of compensation of its executive officers for the previous fiscal year and the ensuing year.

17.3 Audit Committee

The Audit Committee shall be composed of at least three (3) members of the Board one (1) of whom shall be an independent director and shall have adequate understanding or competence of the corporation's financial management systems and environment. The Committee shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

a. Check all financial reports against its compliance with both the internal financial management policies and pertinent accounting standards, including regulatory requirements;

b. Perform oversight financial management functions specifically in the areas of managing credit, market, liquidity, operational, legal and other risks of the Corporation, and crisis management;

c. Pre-approve all audit plans, scope and frequency one (1) month before the conduct of external audit;

d. Perform direct interface functions with the internal and external auditors;

e. Elevate to international standards the accounting and auditing processes, practices and methodologies of the corporation;

f. Develop a transparent financial management system that will ensure the integrity of internal control activities throughout the corporation.

The Board may appoint an Executive Committee and other committees, to which it may delegate the study, supervision and decision of any of the problems and business of the corporation, and of its management.

XVIII. COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

A director shall be paid a per diem in such amount as may be determined by the board of directors for each meeting of the Board he attends. The officers shall receive the compensation which the Board may determine. The Board may provide a bonus for its members, for serving in the Board or in any of the Committees, and a bonus to the Board officers of a total amount not exceeding 5% of the net profits of the corporation before income taxes.

XIX. STOCK REGISTER

The corporation shall be entitled to treat the registered holder of any share as the absolute owner thereof, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or any other claims or any interest in such share on the part of any person, regardless of whether it has express or an implied notice thereof.

The corporation may appoint a stock and transfer agent to record the details required by law with respect to the stock certificates of the corporation, including ledgers and transfer books showing all shares of the corporation subscribed, issued and transferred.

The stock and transfer book or membership book shall be closed at least twenty (20) days for regular stockholders' meetings and seven (7) days for special stockholder's meetings before the scheduled date of the meeting, unless the corporation's appointed stock and transfer agent requires a longer period. (As amended on 29 July 2020)

XX. CANCELLATION OF CERTIFICATES

At the time of transfer of shares of stock the outstanding certificate thereof shall be surrendered and cancelled prior to the issuance of new certificates, same as in the succeeding paragraph provided.

XXI. LOST CERTIFICATES

Any person claiming a certificate of stock to be lost or destroyed, shall comply with the provisions of Section 72 (Lost or Destroyed Certificates) of R.A. 11232, otherwise known as the Revised Corporation Code of the Philippines, and shall give the company a bond of indemnity in the form and with the sureties satisfactory to the Board of Directors, in a sum at least double, the par value of such certificate whereupon the President , the Secretary and the Auditor may issue a new certificate of the same tenor with the one alleged to be lost or destroyed, after the provisions of R.A. 11232 have been complied with. (As amended on 29 July 2020)

XXII. INSPECTION OF ACCOUNTS

The books, accounts and records of the corporation shall be open to inspection by any stockholder at all times during the reasonable hours of any business day.

XXIII. AUDIT OF BOOKS, FISCAL YEAR AND DIVIDENDS

22.1 The external auditor shall be selected and appointed by the stockholders during its annual meeting, upon recommendation of the Audit Committee.

22.2 The fiscal year of the corporation shall commence on January 1st and end on December 31st of the same calendar year.

22.3. The Board of Directors shall define and formulate a policy on the declaration and issuance of dividends, on a best-efforts basis with regularity and at an appropriate rate, taking into consideration the financial condition of the Corporation and the expectations of shareholders on a reasonable return on their investments in the Corporation.

Dividends shall be declared and paid out of the unrestricted retained earnings which shall be payable in cash, property, or stock to all stockholders on the basis of outstanding stock held by them, as often and at such times as the Board of Directors may determine and in accordance with law.

XXIV. AMENDMENTS

These by-laws may be amended or repealed by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the Board of Directors and the stockholders representing a majority of the outstanding capital stock at any stockholders' meeting called for that purpose. However, the power to amend, modify, repeal and adopt new by-laws may be delegated to the Board of Directors by the affirmative vote of the stockholders representing not less that two-thirds of the outstanding capital stock; provided, however, that any such delegation of powers to the Board of Directors to amend, repeal or adopt new by-laws may be revoked only by a vote of the stockholders representing a majority of the outstanding capital stock at a regular or special meeting.

XXV. ADOPTION CLAUSE
(As amended on 29 July 2020)

The foregoing by-laws was adopted by all the stockholders of the Corporation on 28 June 2007 at the principal office of the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands on this 15th day of August, 1957, in the City of Manila, Philippines.

DIRECTORS' CERTIFICATE OF AMENDMENT OF THE BY-LAWS

OF

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

We, the undersigned, constituting at least a majority of the members of the Board of Directors and the Corporate Secretary of RFM Corporation (the "Corporation"), a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the Republic of the Philippines, with Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") Company Registration No. 0000012998, and with principal office at RFM Corporate Center, Corner Sheridan, Pioneer Sts., Mandaluyong City, do hereby certify that:

(1) The accompanying document, attached as Annex "A" is true and correct copy of the Amended By-Laws of the Corporation, embodying the amendment of Articles III, IV, V, VIII, IX, XVI, XIX, XXI, and XXV of the Corporation's By-Laws for purposes of conforming with the provisions of Republic Act No. 11232, otherwise known as the Revised Corporation Code of the Philippines.

(2) A regular meeting of the members of the Board of Directors and the annual meeting of the stockholders were held on July 29, 2020, through videoconference, for the purpose of approving the amendment of Articles III, IV, V, VIII, IX, XVI, XIX, XXI, and XXV of the Corporation's By-Laws.

(3) During the aforesaid meeting, a majority of the members of the Board of Directors appeared in person, and stockholders representing at least two-thirds (2/3) of the issued and outstanding capital stock of the Corporation were present or represented either in person or by proxy.

(4) Furthermore, at the aforesaid meeting, upon motion duly made and seconded, the following resolutions were adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Board of Directors and were ratified by stockholders holding at least two-thirds (2/3) of the issued and outstanding capital stock of the Corporation:

> "RESOLVED, as it is hereby RESOLVED, that the amendments to the Corporation's By-laws in order to conform to the provisions of Republic Act No. 11232, otherwise known as the Revised Corporation Code of the Philippines, are hereby approved and ratified."

(5) This Certificate is issued for purposes of submission to the SEC for approval of the above-stated amendments to the Corporation's Amended By-Laws and for such other legal purposes it may serve.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands this 28 DEC 2020 in Mandaluyong City, Philippines.

Subject: REQUEST FOR COMMENT/RECOMMENDATION

Gentlepersons:

This is in response to the request for comments or recommendation on your proposed application to amend the corporation's By-Laws, as follows:

Current By-Laws	Proposed Amendments
Art. III. Proxies At all meetings of stockholders, a stockholder may vote in person or proxy. Unless otherwise provided in proxy, it shall be valid only for the meeting at which it has been presented to the Secretary. All proxies must be in the hands of the Secretary at least two (2) business days before the time set for the meeting. Proxies filed with the Secretary may be revoked by the stockholders either in an instrument in writing duly presented and recorded with the Secretary, prior to a scheduled meeting or by their personal presence at the meeting.	Art. III. Proxies At all meetings of stockholders, a stockholder may vote in person, through a proxy, through remote communication, or in absentia. Unless otherwise provided in proxy, it shall be valid only for the meeting at which it has been presented to the Secretary. All proxies must be in the hands of the Secretary at least two (2) business days before the time set for the meeting. Proxies filed with the Secretary may be revoked by the stockholders either in an instrument in writing duly presented and recorded with the Secretary, prior to a scheduled meeting or by their personal presence at the meeting.
Art. IV Quorum Unless otherwise provided by law, in all regular or special meeting of stockholders, a majority of the issued and outstanding capital stock must be present or represented in order to constitute a quorum. If no quorum is constituted, the meeting shall be adjourned until the requisite amount of stock shall be present.	Art. IV Quorum Unless otherwise provided by law, in all regular or special meeting of stockholders, a majority of the issued and outstanding capital stock must be present or represented in order to constitute a quorum. A stockholder who participates through remote communication or in absentia, shall be deemed present for purposes of quorum. If no election is held, or the owners of majority of the outstanding capital stock or majority of the members entitled to vote are not present in person, by proxy, or through remote communication or not voting in absentia at the meeting, such meeting may be adjourned and the Corporation shall proceed in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Corporation Code.
Art. V. Voting Voting upon all questions at all meetings of the stockholders shall be by shares of stock. However, for the election of	Art. V. Voting Voting upon all questions at all meetings of the stockholders shall be by shares of stock. However, for the election of directors, the shares of stock shall be voted as provided in the Corporation Code of the Philippines.	directors, the shares of stock shall be voted as provided in the Revised Corporation Code of the Philippines. Provided, that stockholders may also vote through remote communication or in absentia, subject to the rules and regulations as may be issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Art. VIII. Place of Meeting Stockholders' meetings, whether regular or special, shall be held in the principal office of the corporation or at any place designated by the Board of Directors in the city or municipality where the principal office of the corporation is located.	Art. VIII. Place of Meeting Stockholders' meetings, whether regular or special, shall be held in the principal office of the corporation or at any place designated by the Board of Directors in the city or municipality where the principal office of the corporation is located, or though remote communication subject to the rules and regulations as may be issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission. Please be reminded that both Section 51 of The Corporation Code and Section 50 of the Revised Corporation Code requires that the annual stockholders' meeting shall be held in a particular venue, to wit: Sec. 51, The Corporation Code. Place and Time of Meetings of Stockholders or Members. – Stockholders' or members' meetings, whether regular or special, shall be held in the city or municipality where the principal office of the corporation is located, and if practicable in the principal office of the corporation: x x x x. Sec. 50, Revised Corporation Code. Place and Time of Meetings of Stockholders or Members. – Stockholders' or members' meetings, whether regular or special, shall be held in the principal office of the corporation as set forth in the articles of incorporation, or if not practicable, in the city or municipality where the principal office of the corporation is located: x x x x. Additionally, Sec. 15 of M.C. 6, S 2020, which aims to operationalize the law on remote communication provides that: Sec. 15. The presiding officer shall call and preside the stockholders' meetings at the principal office of the corporation or if not practicable, in the city or municipality where the principal office of the corporation is located. The foregoing law and regulation would show that an ASM should always have a physical venue and cannot be conducted through purely virtual means.
Art. IX. Notice of Meeting Notices for annual or special meetings of stockholders may be sent by the Secretary by personal delivery or electronic mail or fax or by mail at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the meeting to each stockholder of record at his last known address or by publishing the notice in a newspaper of national circulation at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the meeting. The notice shall state the place, date and hour of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Notice may be waived by the stockholders.	Art. IX. Notice of Meeting Notices for annual meetings of stockholders may be sent by the Secretary by personal delivery or electronic mail or fax or by mail at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the meeting to each stockholder of record at his last known address or by publishing the notice in a newspaper of national circulation at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the meeting, or in such other manner as the Securities and Exchange Commission may allow under its guidelines. Notice of special meetings of stockholders may be sent at least one (1) week prior to the date of the meeting in the same manner above. The notice shall state the place, date and hour of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Notice may be waived by the stockholders. The company is reminded of the requirement under the 2015 SRC IRR which provides that:

	SRC Rule 20.3.1. In the conduct of annual or other stockholders' meetings, the Issuer shall transmit either a written or verifiable soft copy of the information statement and proxy form (in case of a proxy solicitation) containing the information specified under SEC Form 20-IS, and a management report under SRC Rule 2004, if applicable, to every security holder of the class entitled to vote. SRC Rule 20.3.3.4. The information statement, proxy form and management report referred to in SRC Rule 20.4, if applicable, shall be distributed to security holders at least fifteen (15) business days prior to the date of the stockholders' meeting; Provided, that in case any changes are made within the said fifteen (15) business days, the company shall comply with the following requirements: X x x x.
Art. XVI Board of Directors X x x x. 16.4 Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held once a month on such dates and at places as the Chairman of the Board may determine, or upon the request of a majority of the Directors. 16.5 Notice of the regular or special meeting of the Board, specifying the date, time and place of the meeting, shall be communicated by the Secretary to each director personally, or by telephone, or by written message sent by fax, or by e-mail. A director may waive this requirement, either expressly or impliedly. 16.6. A majority of the number of directors as fixed in the Articles of Incorporation shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of corporate business and every decision of at least a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which there is a quorum shall be valid as a corporate act, except for the election of officers which shall require the vote of a majority of all the members of the Board. A director may waive this requirement, either expressly or impliedly. 16.6. A majority of the number of directors as fixed in the Articles of Incorporation shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of corporate business and every decision of at least a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which there is a quorum shall be valid as a corporate act, except for the election of officers which shall require the vote of a majority of all the members of the Board. A director who participates and/or votes in the meeting through remote communication such as videoconferencing, teleconferencing, or other alternative modes of communication shall be considered present for purposes of quorum. X x x.
Art. XIX.STOCK REGISTER The corporation shall be entitled to treat the registered holder of any share as the absolute owner thereof, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or any other claims or any interest in such share on the part of any person, regardless of whether it has express or an implied notice thereof. The corporation may appoint a stock and transfer agent to record the details required by law with respect to the stock certificates of the corporation, including ledgers and transfer books showing all shares of the corporation subscribed, issued and transferred.	Art. XIX.STOCK REGISTER The corporation shall be entitled to treat the registered holder of any share as the absolute owner thereof, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or any other claims or any interest in such share on the part of any person, regardless of whether it has express or an implied notice thereof. The corporation may appoint a stock and transfer agent to record the details required by law with respect to the stock certificates of the corporation, including ledgers and transfer books showing all shares of the corporation subscribed, issued and transferred.

	The stock and transfer book or membership book shall be closed at least twenty (20) days for regular stockholders' meetings and seven (7) days for special stockholder's meetings before the scheduled date of the meeting, unless the corporation's appointed stock and transfer agent requires a longer period. The foregoing should be applied in conjunction with the Securities Regulation Code (SRC) and its implementing rules and regulations (SRC IRR). In such regard, please note that the SRC IRR requires: SRC Rule 20.3.1. In the conduct of annual or other stockholders' meetings, the Issuer shall transmit either a written or verifiable soft copy of the information statement and proxy form (in case of a proxy solicitation) containing the information specified under SEC Form 20-IS, and a management report under SRC Rule 2004, if applicable, to every security holder of the class entitled to vote. 20.3.3.4. The information statement ... shall be distributed to security holders at least fifteen (15) business days prior to the date of the stockholders' meeting; ...
Art XXI. Lost Certificates Any person claiming a certificate of stock to be lost or destroyed, shall make an affidavit of that fact and shall advertise the same in such manner as the Board may require, and shall give the company a bond of indemnity in the form and with the sureties satisfactory to the Board, in a sum at least double, the par value of such certificate whereupon the President, the Secretary and the Auditor may issue a new certificate of the same tenor with one alleged to be lost or destroyed, after the provisions of R.A. 201 have been complied with.	Art XXI. Lost Certificates Any person claiming a certificate of stock to be lost or destroyed, shall comply with the provisions of Section 72 (Lost or Destroyed Certificates) of R.A. 11232, otherwise known as the Revised Corporation Code of the Philippines, and shall give the company a bond of indemnity in the form and with the sureties satisfactory to the Board of Directors, in a sum at least double, the par value of such certificate whereupon the President , the Secretary and the Auditor may issue a new certificate of the same tenor with the one alleged to be lost or destroyed, after the provisions of R.A. 11232 have been complied with.
Art. XXV. Seal Form and inscriptions- The corporate seal shall be determined by the Board of Directors.	Art. XXV. Seal *Deleted

This Department does not interpose any objection to the amendment of the foregoing provisions, as enumerated above. Thus, within five (5) days from the approval of such amendments, RFM Corporation shall file with the Commission's Central Receiving Unit, a duly accomplished Current Report (SEC Form 17-C), disclosing the approval of said amendments.

At this point, it should be noted that the Directors' Certificate attests that the Board Meeting and Stockholders' Meeting, whereby such amendments were undertaken, was on July 29, 2020. However, a review of reports filed with the Commission shows that the approval by the board was held on June 10, 2020. Accordingly, a show cause order for this discrepancy, on the basis of Sec. 162 of the RCC, has been issued.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, our Department defers to the discretion of the Commission's Company Registration and Monitoring Department (CRMD), considering that it has primary jurisdiction over registration of corporations and partnerships in general, as well as amendments to Articles of Incorporation and By-laws. Moreover, our comments or recommendations are limited only to this Department's regulatory requirements and does not cover the substance of the application with respect to compliance with the Revised Corporation Code of the Philippines.

Finally, it is emphasized that this comment is without prejudice to the prerogative of this Department to act later against the subject entity, if warranted, to ensure full compliance with the provisions of the Securities Regulation Code, its implementing rules and regulations, and other pertinent laws, rules and regulations, as may be necessary and applicable under the circumstances.

Very truly yours,

signed
