RFM Declares Php300 Million Cash Dividend for January 2026

RFM Corporation announced that its Board of Directors has approved a Php300 million cash dividend, equivalent to Php0.08903 per share, payable on February 24, 2026, to shareholders of record as of January 29, 2026. This declaration underscores RFM's continued commitment to delivering shareholder value following its strong performance in 2025, with preliminary unaudited net income of approximately Php1.6 billion and revenues of Php22.2 billion, representing 14% and 2% growth, respectively.

The listed food and beverage company (PSE: RFM) markets well-known brands such as Selecta Milk, Fiesta and Royal Pasta, flour and buns, and operates a joint venture in the country's leading ice cream business selling Selecta, Magnum, and Cornetto ice cream.

At the share price of Php4.85 as of January 14, 2026, this dividend represents a yield of approximately 1.84%. For reference, total dividends declared in 2025 amounted to Php1.5 billion or Php0.44517 per share, representing a dividend yield of 10.3%.

RFM President and CEO Joey Concepcion stated: "This January dividend declaration is one of four or five tranches that we aim to declare for the year. We remain optimistic about sustaining sales and income growth in 2026, driven by new products, resilient consumer demand, easing inflation, and stable commodity prices. Our brands and institutional segments, including ice cream, are expected to maintain strong performance. In fact, we are planning to invest in additional capacity and modernization in our ice cream business over the next few years as our Selecta, Magnum, and Cornetto brands continue to develop the market."

Concepcion further noted: "Aside from new investments in ice cream, RFM is also allocating funds for production upgrades in Selecta Milk to enhance efficiency and yield. And while 2026 will see a heavier spend on capital expenditures compared to 2025, RFM's balance sheet shall remain strong and liquid."
